

The 3rd EUNoM Symposium, on “Managing Multilingual and Multiethnic Societies and Institutions”, was held at the University of Primorska, Koper (Slovenia) on June 20-21 2011. The speakers were Paolo Balboni (University Ca’ Foscari, Venice), Lid King (National Director for Languages, UK), Colin H Williams (School of Welsh - Cardiff University), Björn Melander (Uppsala University), Kristin Tytgat (Erasmushogeschool Brussel), Peeter Mürsepp (Tallinn University of Technology), Helena Kesonen (Tartu University), Roxana-Maria Gâz (Babeş-Bolyai University), Peter Weber (University of München), Sonja Novak (University of Ljubljana), Lucija Čok (University of Primorska), Tomasz Wicherkiewicz (Adam Mickiewicz University), Juliane House (University of Hamburg), and students Jan Hrvatin (MA student), Moira Cavaion (PhD student) and Ana Cukjati (BA).

The rapporteur was Dónall Ó Riagáin, independent language planning consultant.

The Fourth EUNoM Symposium: “Multilingualism in the knowledge economy: labour markets revisited, and corporate social responsibility” is being hosted by Queen’s University Belfast (<http://www.qub.ac.uk>), in Belfast (Northern Ireland) on 14-15 November 2011. For information click here: <http://eunom.uoc.edu> (click on “Activities”).

Speakers will include F. Bradley (Dublin), T. Vogel (Frankfurt, Oder), S. Cartwright (CILT), R. Jorna (Ljouwert), S. Novak (Ljubljana), M. Nic Giolla Mihchil (Dublin), J. M. Canyelles (Barcelona), F. Grin (Geneva) and K. Gudauner (Bozen/Bolzano). Speakers have also been asked to contribute to the discussion forum. Please contact the symposium convenor, Dr. Eugene McKendry e.mckendry@qub.ac.uk, for queries.

Make your voice heard! We welcome the opinion of all people working in the field. Please register at http://in3.uoc.edu/opencms_in3/opencms/webs/projectes/EUNOM/EN/take_part/index.html and take part. Go to <http://eunom.proboards.com/index.cgi#general>. Enter username and password, go to the “D” folder write your comments and click on the “reply” button beneath.

Please let us know what activities your institution is organizing for the 2011 European Day of Languages (Monday 26th September)! Write to nmarrugat@uoc.edu and visit <http://edl.ecml.at/>

Links:

- Linguamón-UOC Chair in Multilingualism http://www.uoc.edu/portal/english/catedra_multilinguisme/index.html
- Linguamón-Casa de les Llengües (House of Languages, Barcelona) http://www10.gencat.cat/casa_llengues/AppJava/en/index.jsp
- Click here to see photos from all our symposia: <http://www.flickr.com/photos/59775787@N06/sets/>